MEMORANDUM FOR THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, INTERNATIONAL STAFF

SUBJECT: Provision of Conference Rooms for meetings of MC 161 Ad Hoc Intelligence Working Group 1970

1. An annual meeting of NATO Nations Intelligence Experts is scheduled to be held at NATO Headquarters from 6 to 17 April 1970. Designated the "Ad Hoc Intelligence Working Group" (AHIWG), it is charged with producing "Soviet Strength and Capabilities" (MC 161/70) and "Soviet Bloc Penetration of the Middle East, North Africa and of Related Soviet Activities in the Mediterranean" (MC 255/70). These documents form the basis of NATO planning and are, therefore, important to both the ambassadorial and military staffs.

2. For this conference five rooms, plus the Consultation Room, the latter part time, will be required in the main conference area as in 1969. In addition to these 6 rooms, the IMS will provide in its own area 9 conference rooms and double module spaces, out of normally assigned office spaces where necessary.

3. In July 1969 the Head of Conference Services was asked to reserve accommodation required in the Conference area. He stated that only three such rooms could be made available for this conference in April 1970.

4. If the six rooms required in the Conference area cannot be made available, it will be necessary to postpone the conference until they can be provided. Since programme schedule must be clarified in the near future, I would be grateful to know when the necessary rooms can be made available for this important annual conference.
