MEMORANDUM FOR SUPREME ALLIED COMMANDER ATLANTIC
ATTENTION: Registry Control Officer

SUBJECT: French Titles of Allied Communications
Publications

Reference: RCOM 55-56, dated 12 June 1956

1. ACP's are published in the English language when offered to NATO nations for adoption. Translation of those ACP's adopted for NATO use is the responsibility of the nation requiring the translation and the Standing Group does not receive copies of the translated documents; therefore, the Standing Group is not in a position to compile a list of the French titles of these publications.

2. AMSP's are released to the NATO nations in the English language and translation is the responsibility of the nation requiring the translation. The Standing Group does not receive copies of the translated documents.

3. AFSAL 5104 has not been released generally to NATO and information is not available concerning its translation in the French language.

4. NCCP's (NATO Commanders Communications Publications) and SACLAU "A" are SACLANT documents. The Standing Group has received copies of NCCP 1, NCCP 2 and SACLAU "A" in the English language only, and has no information concerning the remaining NCCP's listed by SACLANT.

5. The Standing Group has no information concerning RAFAC, SPID, or MARC.

FOR THE STANDING GROUP:
