MEMORANDUM FOR THE MILITARY REPRESENTATIVES

SUBJECT: Canadian Mutual Aid Program

1. Resulting from the conversion of Browning M2 Machine Guns to M3, the Royal Canadian Air Force has on hand used spare parts of 66 items in varying quantities.

2. Should any NATO nations be interested in acquiring these spare parts, the Canadian authorities will consider including them in a future offer of Canadian Aid.

3. Nations which consider they may wish to bid for such spare parts if they are offered, are requested to so inform the Standing Group by 10 August 1956. If no nation has replied showing interest by that date, the Canadian authorities will be informed that the spare parts are not required for offer as Mutual Aid.
