MEMORANDUM FOR THE STANDING GROUP

SUBJECT: Policy for the Security of Meteorological Information in the Event of War in the Immediate Future

- References: a. S.G. 51/5
- b. DSGM-13-55
- c. Steering Cmte. 251st Mtg.
- d. SGWM-406-55

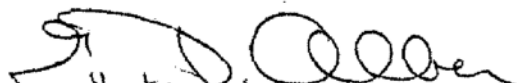

1. Reference a was forwarded to the Standing Group for consideration and a decision as to which of the alternative proposals expressed in paragraph 13 of reference a would constitute the interim policy for the security of meteorological information in the event of war until such time as adequate cryptosystems would be available.

2. In reference c, the Steering Committee recommended that this subject should be reviewed every six months by the Standing Group Meteorological Committee to see whether any solution is possible.

3. The Standing Group Meteorological Committee forwarded to the Standing Group reference c which indicated there was still a difference of opinion on this subject.

4. The Standing Group Meteorological Committee has made a review of this subject as recommended in reference c and wishes to report that there has been no change in the positions of the Members. This matter will remain under continuous study.
