Sir,

I have been asked by my Government to inform you that in June of this year the Norwegian Prime Minister was informally asked by the Soviet Ambassador in Oslo whether he would accept an invitation to visit Moscow. A reply has recently been given to the Soviet Ambassador, saying that the Prime Minister would be glad to accept such an invitation.

A formal invitation to the Prime Minister was received by the Royal Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs on the 20th of this month. At the same time it was suggested that the visit should take place during the latter part of November. A reply with a formal acceptance of the Soviet invitation will now be given to the Soviet authorities.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servant,

(Signed) JENS BOYESEN

To the Secretary General of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization
