NATO INTERNATIONAL INFORMATION MEETING

12th-14th April, 1951.

Resolution on the release of Military Information

The conference of national information officials from the North Atlantic Treaty countries at its meeting in London, 12th-14th April, 1951, unanimously agreed on the importance for their work of the release, to the fullest extent compatible with security, of information on the military aspects of NATO, and of effective working arrangements within NATO for regular and continuous supply of such information. The conference recommended that the resolution be transmitted to the appropriate military agencies through the Standing Group.
