NATO INTERNATIONAL INFORMATION MEETING

12th-14th April, 1951.

Draft Resolution by the United States Delegation.

The national information officials from NAT countries, at their conference in London on 12th, 13th April, unanimously:

- (1) welcome the emerging NAT information programme and assure it of their support and co-operation in their respective countries;
- (2) thank the NAT Information staff for arranging this useful conference and suggest that another such brief conference be held within three months;
- (3) state that they would welcome frequent visits from members of the NAT Information staff to further the interchange of ideas and materials of mutual usefulness.
