NATO INTERNATIONAL INFORMATION MEETING

12th-14th April, 1951.

Draft Resolution by the United States Delegation

The national information officials from NATO countries, at their conference in London on 12th and 13th April, unanimously:

endorse the suggestion that the appropriate information office in each country convene, as an informal committee, appropriate information representatives of the NATO nations' embassies or legations in the particular country for the purpose of developing co-ordinated activities to promote the sense of community of the North Atlantic countries and the purposes of NATO generally.
