SUBJECT: Invitation for NATO-Participation at Canadian Army Staff College Course 1966/67.

1. The Canadian Military Representative has informed the Standing Group that four vacancies in the 1966/67 Canadian Army Staff College Course will be made available for officers of the addressees NATO Countries.

2. The course is of 48 weeks duration commencing in September 1966 and concluding in August 1967. It is conducted at the Canadian Army Staff College, Kingston, Ontario, Canada. Dependents usually accompany the officers.

3. The aim of the course is to prepare officers from all branches of the Army to assume staff appointments at the Major level, and, with further experience, for command. All instructions are carried out in English. Candidates are normally of the rank of Captain but some Majors do attend.
