NUCLEAR PLANNING GROUP

PARTICIPATION BY SPAIN IN NPG ACTIVITIES

The Authorities of Spain have formally indicated their interest in participating fully in NATO's permanent organization for nuclear planning. Attached at Annex is a letter which I have sent to the Permanent Representative of Spain with regard to his country's participation in the Nuclear Planning Group.

ANNEX to
PO/82/109

Brussels, 15th September 1982

Dear Don Javier,

It is with great pleasure that I have informed the National Authorities of member countries of the Nuclear Planning Group that Spain will now be represented at all levels of the Group's regular activities.

I shall see to it that your Authorities receive the appropriate documentation concerning past and present activities and that the necessary administrative and security arrangements are set in motion.

I am circulating copies of this letter for information to the other members of the Nuclear Planning Group.

(Signed) Dr. Joseph M.A.H. LUNS

His Excellency Don Francisco Javier Ruperez Rubio, Permanent Representative of Spain
on the North Atlantic Council.
