Foreign Ministries, the Deputy Secretary General, the NATO Military Authorities, the Assistant Secretaries General, the Director of the Office of Council Operations and Communications and the Director of the Private Office.

- (b) Luncheon given by Mrs. Luns at her home, 43 Avenue Franklin Roosevelt, at 1 p.m. for the wives of the Foreign Ministers and the wives of their countries' Ambassadors.

To allow the necessary arrangements to be made, I should be obliged if you would furnish the Belgian Delegation as soon as possible (Mr. Botte, extension 4033; or Mlle. Van Boxmeer extension 4044) with all the relevant information about those coming to Brussels.

I should also be obliged if Permanent Representatives would, as soon as possible, communicate to my secretariat (extension 5589/5590), the information I need in order to be able to send out the invitations.

(Signed) Joseph M.A.H. LUNS
